

Privacy Statements

Your privacy is of primary importance to Sapperton Parish Council

Your use of this website indicates your full acceptance of our Privacy, Disclaimer and Copyright statements.

If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of these statements, please discontinue your visit and contact us with details of your objections.

Sapperton Parish Council

This privacy statement applies to information collected during your visit(s) to this website, not to any of the sites we link to.

Under the new EU General Data Protection Regulation(GDPR) which came into effect in the UK on 25 May 2018 we have a legal duty to protect any information we collect from you and take appropriate measures to do so. Any information you send to us is used only for the purposes for which it was sent.

When you visit this website, details may be recorded from your web browser for statistical purposes only. Details may include, which pages you browsed, where you came from (the "referring website"), your IP address, operating system, screen size, and web browser etc. Such statistical information is used to improve our website and your visit details will remain confidential.

- Cookies may be used so that the site can provide you with additional functionality for the duration of your visit.
- When you complete a form that requests personal information or email us, you will provide information with which we can identify you. This information will be treated in confidence and only used for the purposes for which it was provided.
- Sapperton Parish Council will not sell or rent your personal information to anyone. Sapperton Parish Council will only send personal information about you to other organisations when we need to share your information in order to provide the information or service you have requested. We will also use the information in response to subpoenas, court orders or other legal processes.

Copyright Statement

Sapperton Parish Council

All material on this site (including text and images) is – unless otherwise stated – the copyright of Sapperton Parish Council.

Private or educational use (within the classroom) is permitted, provided that no changes are made to the material and Sapperton Parish Council is acknowledged as the owner. Commercial usage is strictly prohibited unless formal written permission is obtained beforehand.

Online reproduction of any materials found on this website is permitted on condition that full credit is given to Sapperton Parish Council and a (visible, followed) link to our website address, www.sapfmpc.uk is placed immediately before, after, or within the published material.

Disclaimers

The views expressed on this website are not necessarily those held by Sapperton Parish Council, nor its members.

External Links

Sapperton Parish Council is not responsible for the content of any externally linked websites.

Sapperton Parish Council

Sapperton Parish Council is committed to presenting publications of the highest standard and every effort is made to present up-to-date, accurate information. However, the Council gives no warranty as to the accuracy of the information on this website and accepts no liability for any loss, damage or inconvenience caused as a result of reliance on such information. It cannot be held responsible for any errors or omissions on this website. If you believe such an error or omission has occurred, please let us know by emailing the Clerk, Babs Maloney, SappertonFMPC@gmail.com

Please read our Privacy statement and note that Sapperton Parish Council cannot be held responsible for errors in the disclosure of private information.

Any information that you provide on a public discussion forum will become public knowledge; your permission to publicise is implicit in your providing such information.